BOL, ISLAND BRAČ

ISLAND BRAČ

Home to one of Croatia's most stunning images

With its limited population and breathtaking scenic beauties, this island can never be surpassed when it comes to excitement, adventure and peace. The island where the White House stone came from is also famous for its illustrious olive oil, wine, authentic village traditions and the island's most renowned Golden Horn, which like a tongue extends nearly half a kilometer into the clear blue sea, is one of the largest and most beautiful beaches on the Adriatic, and the most photographed in the world. There is a reason for which Brač has been summoned as one of the rare and ideal holiday destinations.

HOW TO REACH VILLA

LOCATION

Villa Saxum is located on the intriguing island of Brač - Bol Town. The tip of the Golden horn (Zlatni rat) changes shape each day due to the ever-changing sea currents. The beach, framed with deep pine groves for shade, is a favorite destination for surfers and sailors from various parts of Europe and the world because the sea channel between the islands of Brač and Hvar creates ideal winds for windsurfing. Villa Saxum is located just half-way from the center of Bol and this glorious beach.

STYLE AND LAYOUT

Villa Saxum has a modern architectural design that stretches on 300 m² of modern and luxurious decorated interior yet using local materials, such as the Brač stone. Such a stone path leads to two separate dwellings, each connected by an inner courtyard. Nestled in between and hidden from views there is a beautiful swimming pool and surrounding terrace paved with local Brač stone. The villa can comfortably sleep up to 12 guests, with extra beds up to 16 guests, in privacy, luxury and comfort. Swimming pool / TV in each room / DVD player / Hi Fi system / Air Conditioning / Fireplace / Barbeque / Telephone & Wireless Internet / Washer / Dryer / Iron / Ice Maker / Oven / Dishwasher / Refrigerator / Freezer
